The Bluff—

A memory book for PBHS.

A year's life crammed into a few short pages;

The whole story you won't find here,

Only pieces, but pieces designed to jog

a thought . . . a remembrance

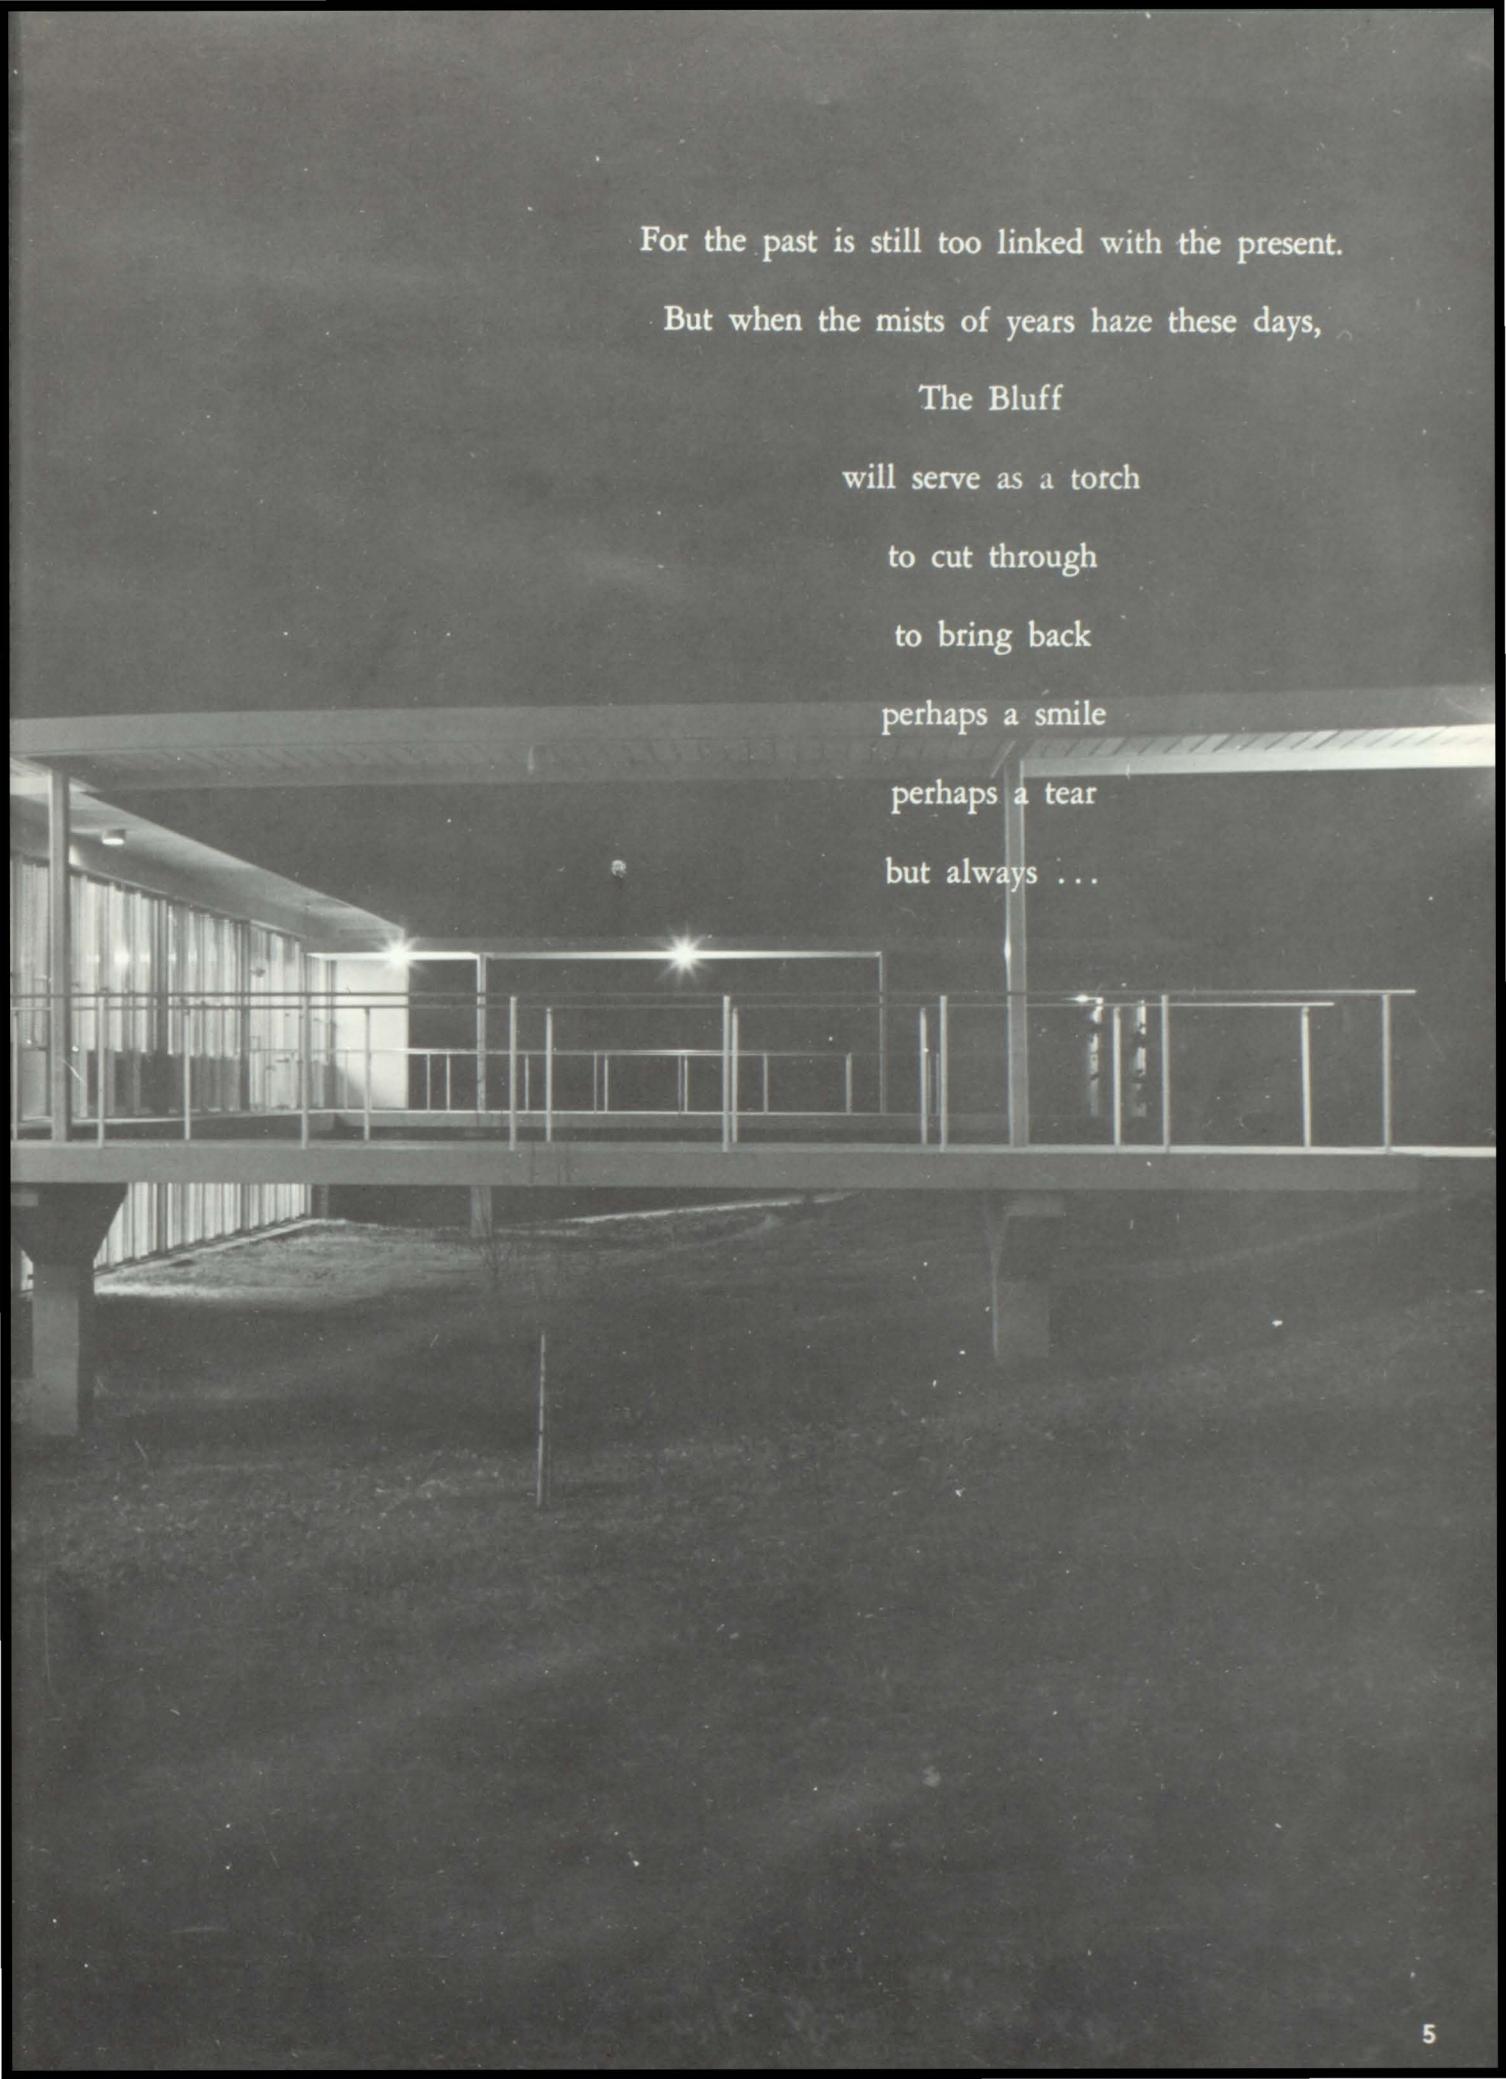

The book

is one to be skimmed now;

The pictures

are to be enjoyed, laughed at;

For the past is still too linked with the present.

But when the mists of years haze these days,

The Bluff

will serve as a torch

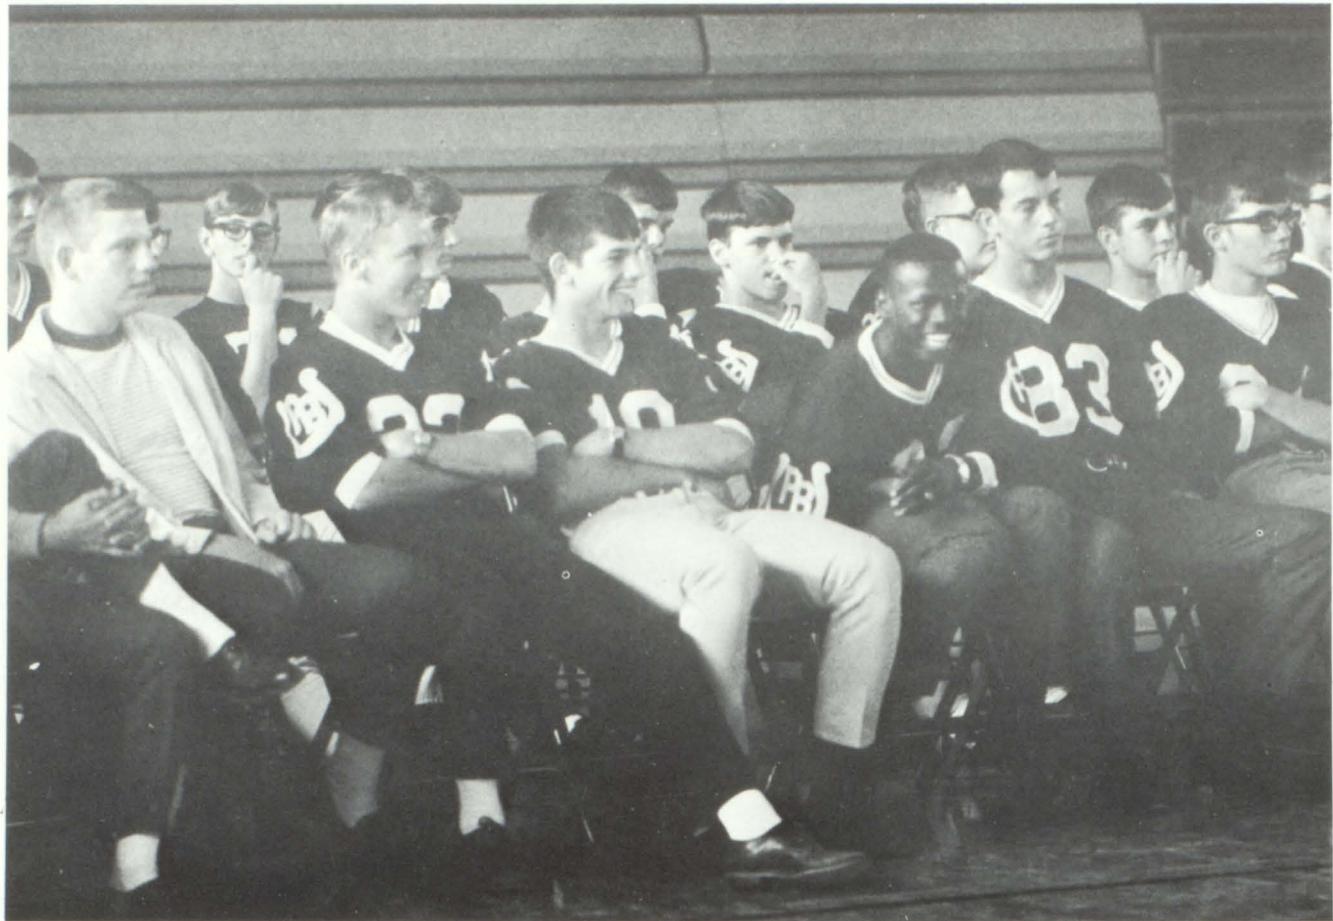

to cut through

to bring back

perhaps a smile

perhaps a tear

but always ...

Board Members, Seated: Robert C. Hyde, Member; Clarabel Gray, Treasurer; Earl Parkin, Member; Mercedes Sloan, Secretary; Thadis R. Seifert, Member. Standing: E. T. Peters, Member; Dr. E. T. Hansbrough, Vice-President; J. B. Jeffress, President.

Every worthwhile institution necessitates having organizers who are willing to give freely of their time and energy. Such are the members of our school board. These individuals insure high physical and educational standards for the Poplar Bluff school system. As students, we know that under the leadership of these people we shall secure everything necessary in attaining an education.

Superintendent

FRED MORROW

We sincerely believe that the 1967-68 school year has been one of the very best in the history of the Poplar Bluff School System.

The citizens of this community have taxed themselves and built a very modern high school and the administration has developed a very comprehensive curriculum. Under construction at the present time is a beautiful vocational school equipped to provide boys and girls with the latest teaching methods in their chosen vocational field. These things have been done by the citizens of the Poplar Bluff School District to implement a sincere belief that each youngster in our school system be educated in a manner which will meet his needs.

Fred M. Morrow

ART KELLER

Today, everyone seems well informed about their freedoms, privileges, and rights. We should be thankful that we live in a country where we have the opportunity to enjoy so many freedoms.

There is much less concern about the obligations, duties, and other responsibilities that are so essential if these privileges, freedoms, and rights are to be maintained.

I would hope that through your high school education you would not only become aware of the opportunities and freedoms but also the necessity for people to assume responsibilities if we are to continue to live in a free society.

HONORS

Editor “The Bluff”

Events and activities of 1968 at PBHS are now ending. School is almost out and friends will be separated. This book will bring back many memories—some good, some bad, some funny, some sad. Many things have happened and in this book, we hope we have caught a glimpse of them.

In the years to come as you sit down and look at these pages, remember all the golden memories, great times and most of all the wonderful friends, teachers, and administrators who guided you at PBHS. Never think of yourself as a student, but as a part of Poplar Bluff High School. If the pages of this book achieve this, our purpose of compiling it together will be accomplished.

It is our wish to walk again the paths of achievement, fun, and skill. We set them all before you . . .

ORGANIZATIONS

Poplar Bluff Senior

The Poplar Bluff "Show Me" Marching Band knows the hard work and time that goes into creating a moving work of art. The genius of our varied drills, revolving squads, and company front endings are the masterpieces of Bil Salyer, the director.

High Marching Band

This year we served as the host school to the 1967 Southeast Missouri Southern Division Marching Festival as well as making a guest appearance at the Southeast Missouri State College Band Day. Through football games and parades the band worked hard and showed its loyalty to our school throughout the year.

Maroon Band

The Maroon Band, or the first hour band, played a big role the entire year, not only during marching season when they contributed to the half-time performances but also by being an individual band during concert season and providing many entertaining and enjoyable concerts. Under the direction of Mr. Bil Salyer, the Maroon Band did an outstanding job.

OFFICERS: Nancy Cumbee, Vice-President; Mary Knight, Secretary-Treasurer; Roger Bolin, President.

White Band

The White Band, or the second hour band, also did an outstanding job. Performing comparable deeds to the Maroon Band there was always a slight competition. They provided many enjoyable half time shows and they, too, participated in concert season. Also under the direction of Mr. Bil Salyer, they did a wonderful job.

Concert Choir

The Concert Choir is a very select organization made up this year of thirty-three members. This choir has been very active for the past two years, entertaining the students of neighboring schools. Everyone faces the responsibility of earning a living. Cooperative Occupational Education provides experiences for an individual's chosen occupation; or, perhaps, helps to decide upon a suitable vocation. Through the COE Club, students are given a chance to judge the profession and other occupations which they think they may choose as their life's work. In reality, COE CLUB members obtain a working knowledge of the business world.

We became upperclassmen at last! We realized this as we took on new privileges and responsibilities. Our enthusiasm, with the leadership of good class officers, made our Junior years at P.B.H.S. a success. We've made many wonderful memories as Juniors this year, and hope to make many more next year as Seniors '69.

As Freshmen, our first year at Poplar Bluff High was a period of transition and change. New subject matter, new teachers, different school clubs and parties all became part of our "different world." Even so, as we continue on during our next three years at P.B.H.S., our Freshman year will always remain memorable and wonderful in our minds.

DRINK
Dr Pepper®

The Dr Pepper logo is centered within a dark, horizontally-oval frame. The word "DRINK" is in a small, sans-serif font above the main word. The main word "Dr Pepper" is in a large, bold, sans-serif font. A registered trademark symbol (®) is located at the bottom right of "Pepper". Below the oval frame, there are two thick, dark, V-shaped lines that meet at a point at the bottom, creating a sense of depth.
